Hudson by City Judge Hoyt, of Beacon committed suicide Friday by hanging herself with a belt from the gas jet in her room. The girl had been in ill health

On the day of her death she cried and begged the authorities to allow her to return to her home. She was left alone in her room during the afternoon, and when one of the officials returned she was found hanging to the gas jet. She had kicked a chair from underneath her, and had used her own belt in hanging herself.
